“ Dear Laura, I am so deeply sorry to hear of the loss of your dad. I wish I could have been near to share your grief. I am so thankful that you be with him during the last week. I pray that these memories will bring you peace and comfort in the days and weeks to come. He must have been a most wonderful man to have had a daughter who could change the lives of so many children. What a wonderful tribute that is to your dad. Lovingly, Sherry Austin

“ The first time I met Gene I stiffed him for dinner. Adding insult to injury, I married his daughter Laura. Despite this inauspicious beginning, I think he grew to like me. I hope he knew that I loved him. I will miss his stupid jokes, jokes I retold ad nauseam. I imagine he has gone to a place where the polka band never stops, and their is an endless supply of kielbasa and ox tail soup. Polka on, my man. Say hello to Tess.
