“ To my beloved brother-in-law Jack. We go all the way back to 1965 when I met your sister Lee. When we were married, you were there to share our loving bond. You were there on many occasions to share the joy of every holiday and birthday with our children, Lisa, Dina and Gina. Now, where ever it is that you have gone, I know you are with Lee again, at long last. I regret greatly that we did not see each other in recent years. I wanted so much to just hang out and have a couple of beers while we shared old memories. Jack, you will be missed more than you could have known.

“ To my great uncle Jack, I love you so much. You had a world of knowledge, experiences, memories, stories and classic American phrases to share. I wished so bad that one day I could sit and write down every hilarious & brilliant thing you've ever said so I could say them too. So far, I've got "trick bag bull jive" & a few more :) I know you've left us for an unearthly paradise where demons do not inhabit the dwellers like they do here on earth. If you're watching, looking after us from where you are... Please fight the demons that have been fighting to remain a part of this family for who knows how long. Love you Uncle Jack.

“ Oh Uncle Jack! You are very loved and will be missed. I'll never forget your laugh and that smirk you always had. Growing up you were always there for family get-togethers and were always the life of the party! I'll always admire how you took care of Nonnie as well as being about the only person who would tell her like it was :) You were a true Chicogean and the city won't be the same without you. You meant a lot to this family as well and we won't be the same without you either. Until we meet again! Glasses up, this one's for you Uncle Jack! We love you - Adam
