“ Ralph was a happy little boy when they spent vacation with us in California. He and her sister Nicole are so adorable. We enjoyed them so much especially my Mom and Dad. Ralph don't even want to go home to Chicago. He fell in love with all of us. I guess he enjoyed the way we took them in several places in San Francisco. The day they have to return back was just bad. He cried his heart out clutching me and my husband screaming he doesn't want to go home. He finally calm down when I told him he can call me or I will call him. He used to send me drawings and his favorite one is Sonic the hedgehog. I always call him my Sonic baby. I can still remember when he call me Enay. Rest In Peace my sweet nephew of mine. Be with the angels and cherubs. You will always stay alive in our hearts and will remember the memories we had with you. My Sonic baby, I will always treasure you. Till we meet again.
