“ Dear Bob & Family;

So sorry to hear of your Father's passing. I watched the video and cried myself...

I remember growing up with you and attending St. Joe's together, riding the same bus, then going to Locust, and finally New Trier West. The last time we talked in person, you were traveling with the Country Music Band. Are you managing Shania Twain yet? I hear she's available...

Laurie Baruch told me of your loss on the phone this morning. I still keep in touch with many of the old friends, even though I'm in Charlotte, NC, have been for 9 years...

Hope you're holding up OK. Send me an email if you'd like.

Sincerely,

Jeff Miller###imported-begin###Jeff Miller###imported-end##

“ Dearest John Blesius, Now you are in absolute peace surrounded by Peg and all those you have loved and missed. I am so sorry we'll never get to enjoy SoCal with you ever again, but we have to be good sports and be happy for you and Peg. You are one beautiful person with a most generous spirit of which all of your sons and grandchildren have a part. Much love, The Dixons##imported-begin##Nancy, Dave and Casey Dixon##imported-end##

“ My Beloved Father in Law...

I was not ready to part ways quite yet. We were expecting you around for at least 20 more years. Who will we enjoy bands and night life with???

You were the epitome of selflessness, class, dignity, grace and unconditional love. How we will miss you every day.

You were one of the two most honorable men I ever knew. What a privilege.

Give Peggy, (Nana,) a hug in the Heavenly's and we will see you both soon.

All my love and condolences to those of us, both family and friends, who will miss you deeply.

*Your Daughter in law and biggest fan, bar none. Love you.....
